Jennifer Sullivan Pre-K

For the first month of Winter, how fitting to spotlight Pre-K Teacher Jennifer Sullivan who (after getting in trouble for sneaking inside during a brutally cold recess in 1st grade) swore NEVER to become a teacher so she didn't have to be outside during recess. She now LOVES being outside & greets us every day (bundled up of course) at the end of the morning drop-off line❄️

Mrs. Sullivan & her husband Nick met at Leo Jr/Sr High & have been married 20 years with 3 children, Phoebe who is a senior at DHS, Henry who is a sophomore at DHS, & Jase who is flying high as a 5th grade Watson Eagle!. Their dog Jr loves going out on adventures with the family and being home with their 3 sweet cats (Maddie, Myra, & Bella) & Henry's 9 chickens!

When Jennifer's not at school or cheering for one of her kid's soccer, football, volleyball, basketball, baseball games(whew!), she enjoys cooking, baking, bonfires, & stargazing. Her favorite part of teaching are the moments when students say "oh I didn't know that" as they begin to understand.

We are so thankful that the same roads that took Jennifer to Hamilton Lake as a child, now bring her to JR Watson to be part of our Eagle family!
